General Terms and Conditions (GTC) for Events

Conditions of participation and payment for events of Organic Electronics Saxony e.V. and Organic Electronics Saxony Management GmbH (hereinafter collectively referred to as OES)

1. Registration

Registration for participation in events must be made in writing (by letter or e-mail) or via online registration. It must be received by OES within the deadline stated in mailings, on the website or other information material, otherwise 14 days prior to the start of the event.

Registrations will be considered in the order in which they are received. The contractual relationship comes into effect with the written confirmation of registration. If a registration cannot be considered, especially because the event is already fully booked, the person concerned will be informed immediately.

The participation fee is per person and event date plus statutory value-added tax. It includes - if provided for - conference documents, lunch and dinner as well as beverages.

2. Right of withdrawal

You have the right to revoke within 14 days, without giving reasons, distance contracts concluded exclusively by means of distance communication such as letter, e-mail, telephone or Internet. The revocation period is 14 days from the day of the conclusion of the contract.

In order to exercise your right of withdrawal, you must inform us of your decision to withdraw from this contract by means of a clear declaration (e.g. a letter or e-mail sent by post). In order to comply with the withdrawal period, it is sufficient that you send the notification of the exercise of the right of withdrawal before the expiry of the withdrawal period.

3. consequences of the revocation

If you revoke this contract, we have to refund all payments we have received from you immediately and at the latest within 14 days from the day we have received the notification of your revocation of this contract.

4. terms of payment

The participant must pay the event fee for the event immediately, regardless of third-party services, and no later than the date specified by OES. OES has the right to exclude participants from an event if the payment of the event fee or similar has not been made on time. If the participant is in default of payment, OES is entitled to charge interest on arrears in the amount of 5% above the base interest rate pursuant to § 247 para. 1 BGB p.a..

5. Withdrawal and termination

The participant may withdraw in writing (by letter or e-mail) up to the stated registration deadline and without giving reasons. After this deadline, 50% of the event fees will be due. Participants who do not show up without excuse are obligated to pay the full event fee.

In the context of free OES event formats (e.g. Business Breakfast), an administration or organization fee will be charged for unexcused no-shows. The amount of the fee will be indicated separately in the respective invitation to the event. A cancellation free of charge can be made at the latest 24 h before the start of the event at info@oes-net.de.

The right to participate is transferable free of charge in consultation with OES. The name of the representative must be communicated to OES at least 5 working days before the start of the event.

The right of termination without notice for good cause by OES remains unaffected. In the event of termination without notice for good cause, the event fee will not be refunded.

As long as the conception of the event is not significantly affected, the change of lecturers or shifts in the schedule do not entitle the participant to withdraw from the contract or to reduce the event fees.

6. Cancellation of events

OES has the right to cancel the respective events for good cause, even at short notice. The participants will be informed by OES immediately. OES will try to find an alternative date for the event. A realization of the event is not guaranteed. If the event is cancelled, the event fee already paid will be refunded immediately. Claims for damages are excluded, unless there is gross negligence or intent on the part of the organizer.

7. Force majeure

If the business basis for the fulfillment ceases to exist due to force majeure (e.g. natural disasters, war, riots, strike, failure or obstruction of traffic and/or communication links, pandemics), the contractual partner can only demand reimbursement of his expenses if OES is reimbursed by its contractual partners.

8. Liability

Liability for damages is excluded, unless the damage is due to intentional or grossly negligent conduct on the part of OES or its vicarious agents (e.g. lecturers).

9. Other costs (travel, accommodation etc.)

Travel, accommodation or other costs are not to be borne by OES. Cancellations of hotel, arrival and departure reservations are to be made by the participants themselves and any costs incurred as a result of the cancellation are to be borne by the participants themselves.

10. Data processing/data protection

OES will store, process and use personal data of the participant and/or contractual partner in compliance with legal regulations, unless further consent has been given. The use also includes the forwarding of the data to third parties covered by the permission. The data will not be passed on to unauthorized third parties. Confirmation of registration will also be sent by unencrypted e-mail. It cannot be ruled out that data and content may be read by third parties.

For events, personal data such as the name of the participants, profile of the participants and name of the organization / company in a list of participants may be made publicly available to all participants. Should this be the case, OES will explicitly point this out as part of the registration for the event.

11. Consent to the creation of media

During the events, photos, videos or other recordings will be made for the organizer's self-promotion. These are recordings that reflect the entirety of the event, in which individual participants may be recognizable. With the registration the participant gives his consent to the creation and use of photos, videos or other.

12. Copyrights/copyright

The titles, advertising and information media, concept, content and methods for planning, implementing and controlling the event, as well as the participant documents/materials handed out at the event, whether digital or print, are the intellectual property of the organizer and its partners. All rights to these are held by the organizer or the respective partner. The participant documents/materials handed over to the participant during or after the event are exclusively intended for the participant's personal use.

13. Miscellaneous

OES is entitled to exclude participants from further participation in the events in special cases. Each participant bears full responsibility for him/herself and his/her actions. In this case, a refund of the event fee paid is excluded. Further claims for damages by OES are not affected by this. If the contractual partner and the participant are not identical, the contractual partner also assumes liability for the participant's misconduct.

14. Written form clause

Subsidiary agreements must be made in writing in order to be effective. This shall also apply to any amendments to this written form clause.

15. Final Provisions

Should individual provisions of this contract be invalid or unenforceable or become invalid or unenforceable after conclusion of the contract, the validity of the rest of the contract shall remain unaffected. The invalid or unenforceable provision shall be replaced by a valid and enforceable provision whose effect comes as close as possible to the economic objective pursued by the contracting parties with the invalid or unenforceable provision. The above provisions shall apply mutatis mutandis in the event that the contract proves to be incomplete.

The place of jurisdiction for all mutual claims is Dresden. These General Terms and Conditions shall apply from November 1, 2021.

Despite careful examination, we do not assume any liability for the completeness of the contents. OES assumes no liability for linked external websites and their contents.
